with 41411 inhabitants (2021). Until 1930, and despite its status as a village, it was called The Village of The Galega do Ribatejo or, simply, Aldeia Galega or Aldegalega, which then had its current name, "which best matches its historical traditions".

It is the headquarters of the municipality of Montijo with 348.62 km<sup>2</sup> of area and 55 689 inhabitants (2021), subdivided into 5 parishes. It is one of the few municipalities in Portugal territorially discontinuous, being the one that is most evident. The main portion, where the city is located, is the smallest (56.3 km<sup>2</sup>) and is limited to the north and east by the municipality of Alcochete, to the southeast by Palmela, to the south by the Moita and to the west by the Tagus estuary. The secondary part, about 15 km to the east, is bordered to the north by Coruche, to the east by Montemor-o-Novo and Vendas Novas, to the south and southwest by Palmela and to the northwest by Benavente.

The Vasco da Gama Bridge, inaugurated in March 1998, and the Transtejo river transport, ensure the connection between Montijo and Lisbon. Montijo celebrates on June 29 the Popular Festivals of St. Peter, patron saint of the people of the sea, and is known for land of bullfighting, good food and fados.
